Susana Balbo

SYRAH-BONARDA

The Philosophy

After 22 years of winemaking, Susana Balbo has a strong sense of what she wants from her wines. From every harvest, she creates the grandest possible wines under her Susana Balbo label. To achieve this, she makes a rigorous selection of the finest barrels prior to making her final blends, dividing them into the parents (reserve level wines) and offspring or “crios”. Wines under her Crios label display ripe fruit flavors, excellent balance and concentration, and are meant to be enjoyed in their vibrant youth. They are also an incredibly good value. And like Susana’s own crios (a boy & a girl), this Syrah-Bonarda is extremely lovable and fun to be around.

About the Grapes

Syrah is the well-known grape of France’s Rhone Valley and Australia’s Shiraz.. Not well-known outside Argentina, Bonarda is surprisingly second only to Malbec in red grape plantings. Its origins are in Italy’s Piedmont region where it represented 30% of all pre-phylloxera plantings. In Mendoza, yields can reach 12 tons per acre (though with little flavor concentration). The key to producing great Bonarda is finding very old vines growing in the warm, sandy soils of eastern Mendoza, then limiting vigor through severe pruning and irrigation techniques. Luckily, Susana’s husband, Pedro, owns and manages such a vineyard.

Tasting Notes/Food Pairing Suggestions

Dark reddish/purple color. Intense aroma of raspberries and a hint of smoked meat and herbs. This medium-bodied, very lively wine has loads of ripe fruit flavors with a slightly spicy character and a long, juicy finish. The combination of rich fruit and solid structure make this wine a winner both before or during a meal. Certainly enjoyable in its youth, but it will also age beautifully. A fun wine to try with a wide range of red wine-friendly foods, and one that will surprise even the most pretentious connoisseur.

About the Name/Label

Crios means “offspring” (as in children). Susana selected a word to express the notion that these are wines that haven’t quite “grown up” to the same level of quality and maturity as her more expensive Susana Balbo label wines, but they receive the same loving care and attention throughout the winemaking process. The label features a series of three connected and overlapping hands, an image inspired by a Mayan artifact. The three hands represent Susana and her two children.
