ABOUT GRIGNANO

The Grignano estate began in the middle ages and was once the personal property of Catherine de Medici in the 15th century. The Inghirami family, also one of the finest shirt makers in Italy, have been the custodians for over 50 years.

The Estate is one of just 20 wineries in Chianti Rufina, an area known to produce distinctive, elegant, and age worthy wines due to maritime breezes and high elevation.

Tommaso Inghirami is making wines that meet the moment and are even built for the future. Bright fruit and low alcohol levels are timeless and especially appealing to the emerging generation of drinkers throughout Italy and beyond. His fresher style also incorporates more Tuscan oak, terracotta and cement while maintaining low yields and the highest quality.
